

The Bamberg Herald.

ESTABLISHED MAY 1st, 1891.

A. W. KNIGHT, Editor.

RATES—$1.00 per year; 50 cents for six months. Payable in advance.

Thursday, December 7, 1899.

The newspaper men must be happy. Nearly all of our exchanges had a thanksgiving editorial last week.

"Larry" Gantt has quit the newspaper business and gone to farming, but he seems to be raising more "Cain" among the county officials of Spartanburg county than anything else just now.

Some newspapers have published the statement that Hon. A. Howard Patterson, of Barnwell, has announced his candidacy for governor. Has he? We folks over in this part of the country have not heard it.

It now seems almost certain that Mr. Roberts, the recently elected polygamist representative in congress from Utah will not be allowed to take his seat. The women are working against him, and, as usual, they'll come out ahead.

The newspapers are "catching on" to the prosperity boom. Several new ones have been started recently, others improved and enlarged, and now the Columbia Record is to be run by a stock company, many improvements being made. Mr. Geo. R. Koester will be editor, and Columbia is to have a first-class afternoon paper.

Several persons have spoken to us about increasing the subscription price of THE BAMBERG HERALD to $1.50 a year, saying that the paper was now one of the very best weeklies in the State and well worth the money. We thank our friends for their interest in their county paper, and while we realize the truth and justice of their opinions, we shall keep the price at $1 per year, for the present at least. By doing this we expect to put the paper into the hands of every person in Bamberg county, thereby making it more valuable to advertisers. We believe it will be better for us all, and if our subscription list continues to increase as it has since we took charge, the wisdom of this course will be justified.

THAT STATE HOUSE MATTER. "We would like to see the State House completed, if it can be done with the present income of the State. If not, we're agin it," says the Bamberg Herald. The State House can easily be completed without raising taxes. If it is not completed, the bill for repairs will be larger each year.—Columbia Record.

Will the Record kindly give us some figures on the subject? How much is spent in repairs each year, and what will it cost to complete the building?

Afraid of Small Pox.

Gov. McSweeney yesterday received a letter from six citizens of Olar saying: "We, the undersigned jurors of Bamberg county, for the term of court to be held Monday, the 4th day of December, 1899, have been duly summoned to appear on that day and on account of the case of small pox reported being there, we pray your immediate action in the matter."—The State.

Splendid Advice. In discussing the question of building up a town and having confidence in the same, is not far from right in the following: "Either run a town with vim or just sell out and leave it. Men who are all the time trying to get out of business will never try to build it up. One of two things must be done—run a town for all it's worth, get up steam and keep it up, or quit the whole thing, slide out and let nature take its course. Do you want trade? Bid for it. Do you want business to come to your town? Do you want a prosperous town, where people can come who are disposed to make their home? Then do away with, bury from sight all jealousies, all spite work; work no more for few individuals, but work more for common prosperity and mutual benefit. Wake up, rub your eyes, roll up your sleeves and go to work! Don't work with fear and trembling, but take it for granted that blood will tell. Leave results with themselves, borrow no trouble, but all unite to make it the biggest kind of a city."

It takes but one minute to overcome tickling in the throat and stop a coughing fit. This remedy cures all forms of stomach and lung troubles. Harmless and pleasant to take. It prevents consumption. A famous specific for grippe and its after effects. Bamberg Pharmacy.

The Parrot boys are getting out a good paper at Clinton, but they are not being patronized in an advertising way by their home merchants as they deserve.

Gubernatorial Gossip.

Mr. Hartwell M. Ayer, editor of the Florence Daily Times, and formerly of this county, in a recent political article in his paper, has the following to say about Mr. A. Howard Patterson, of Barnwell as a gubernatorial candidate:

I learn that the Warwick of Barnwell are grooming A. Howard Patterson, who has been spoken of so long as a probable candidate, and that they will enter him in the race this year. A strong effort was made to bring Mr. Patterson out in the last campaign and it is understood that he has been gradually attaining what seemed to be the acme of his ambition—Elihu to Tillman's Elijah. He will come out as the dispensary champion. Some of his friends have rather lost patience with Mr. Patterson for what they regard as successive "bluffs" on his part which came to naught. They are inclined to quote the old stanza:

He fears his fate too nicely
Or his deserts are small,
Who fears to touch the touch,
And make or lose it all.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Knowing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be a medicine of great worth and merit and especially valuable for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, we will hereafter warrant every bottle bought of us and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of a 25 or 50 cent bottle.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The Christmas number of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly is one of surpassing beauty and literary distinction. The cover, in colors, by F. Luis Mora, invites to the reasonable banquet set forth in the following list of contents: "Four Forty-five," a farce, by William Dean Howells, illustrated by Granwald; "Pasta," a complete story by Henry James, illustrated by Howard Chandler Christy; "Christmas Treasures," an imitation sketch by Margaret Holley ("Josiah Allen's Wife"), illustrated by Granwald; "Miss Mason's Christmas Dinner," a complete story by Margaret E. Sangster, illustrated by Chominski; the opening installment of "The Bath Comedy," the new serial story by Agnes and Egerton Castle, illustrated by F. Luis Mora; "A Shepherd, Lad," a poem by Mary E. Wilkins, illustrated by Hugh M. Eaton; "The Old Fashioned Christmas Dinner," a farm ballad, by Will Christen, illustrated by Yoshonaga; "John Howard Payne," an illustrated account of the strange, eventful history of the life and death of the author of "Home, Sweet Home," by Milton E. Ailes; "Some Christmas Pictures," by Margaret Farnie Eaton, with reproductions of famous works by old and modern masters; "The American Woman as a Poem-Maker," by Mary A. Livermore; and "Marganalia," contributions by Joaquin Miller, Clinton Scott, and Ed. Paul. L. H. T. The Christmas number of this magazine, edited by Young, Rice, Edwin L. Sablin, R. K. Munkittrick, and others.

Southern Limited.

The Southern Railway's winter schedules will become operative December 10 between Eastern cities and Florida, and the handsomest trains ever devised by man, as well as record-breaking schedules, will be witnessed. The Southern has for many years borne off the palm for tourist travel and this season is determined not to lose any laurels already gained, but to add fresh laurels to its chaplet. The extension of the Southern's line from Columbia to Savannah will make the delivery of the handsome tourist trains to the Plant System at Savannah, and all of the delightful resorts of the east coast of Florida beyond Jacksonville will be reached by the Florida East Coast Railway, the "Flagler System." Dining cars of the latest and most palatial design will be carried on these trains each way.

Similar magnificent through Pullman service from Cincinnati, with tourists from the Northwest, through Harriman Junction, the "Land of the Sky" and Columbia, making delivery to the Plant System at Savannah, will be a part of this service.

These are the regularly established limited trains of the Southern Railway, which perform this service every winter and are in addition to the other fast trains on the System running North and South.

Holiday Home Journal.

The contributors to the December Ladies' Home Journal include Finley Peter Dunne (author of "Mr. Doodle"), Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brainerd, Mrs. S. T. Pickett, Mrs. Burton Kingsland, Edward Bok, George W. Cable, Albert W. Smith, Dan Beard, Franklin Fyles, Sara Beaumont Kennedy, and a half-score of other equally well-known writers. To the pictorial embellishment of the same number A. F. Frost, W. L. Taylor, H. C. Christy, Frank O. Snaill, Walter Russell, Lucius Hitchcock and others have contributed their best efforts. The Christmas number covers an unusual wide field of interest. The great festival day is the theme of carol, story and pictures, and of various practical, useful articles, and numerous topics that are uppermost in the minds of women and helpful in the conduct of the home, are practically discussed. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

Religious Thoughts.

He who loves his neighbor no more than he loves himself has not taken the first step in Christian discipleship. He has made no sacrifice; he has organized his life on the Hebrew, the conservative, but not on the Christian or redemptive basis. He is a Christian who makes his life an offering to human need; who gives himself to be brewed and meat to feed the hunger of his brothers; who sheds his blood to be the wine of the world's life; who discerns the cries of the world, and offers hands of faith to be stretched upon the cross of a renunciation of his own happiness, that he may draw the world under the dominion of right.—Prof. Herroth.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreary condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Thos. Black's and Bamberg Pharmacy.

The Best Christmas Gift of All.

In choosing a Christmas gift for a friend that can afford more present or lasting pleasure than a subscription to 'The Youth's Companion'—the delight with which it is welcomed on Christmas morning is renewed every week in the year. The charm of it is disclosed little by little as the months run their course. There is no household in which it will prove an inspiration.

Those who wish to present a year's subscription to a friend may also have the beautiful new Companion Calendar for 1900 sent with it. This Calendar is a reproduction in twelve color printings of three exquisite designs by a celebrated American artist, a member of the American Water-Color Society. In addition to all this issues of 'The Companion' for the remaining weeks of 1899 are sent free from the time of subscription is received for the new volume.

A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1135 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Thos. Black's and Bamberg Pharmacy; every bottle guaranteed.

A Senatorial Slander.

Two ladies visiting in Washington during one of the sessions of Congress went to the Capitol to hear the proceedings in the United States Senate. Most of the galleries being filled, they approached the doorkeeper of the Senators' gallery where admission is by card. As they did not possess this passport, the doorkeeper suggested that they procure one from any Senator they might be acquainted with.

"But we do not know any Senator," they replied.

A Frightful Blunder.

Will often cause a horrible burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklin's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile Cure on Earth. Only 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Thos. Black and Bamberg Pharmacy.

The Senate has always been controlled by lawyers, and Blaine was at a disadvantage because he did not belong to the profession. The law-lords were disposed to disparage and flout him, but he was disrespectful to the verge of irreverence. "Doth the Senator from Maine think I am an idiot (dud)?" roared Thurman, in reply to an interrogatory Blaine put to him one day in the Pacific railroad debate. "Well," bellowed Blaine, "that depends entirely on the answer you make to my question!"

That Throbbing Headache. Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Thos. Black and Bamberg Pharmacy.

John I. Blair, in his earlier days, owned a Western railroad along the route of which he established a series of lunch rooms, at which employees of the road were to be charged 50 cents and all passengers 75 cents. Mr. Blair once dined at one of these places, and, concluding his meal, laid down a half dollar. "Hold on," cried the cashier, "you don't belong to this road." "I know that," replied Mr. Blair, "the road belongs to me."

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for whooping cough, children's cough, croup, etc., etc."—Gentryville, Ind. Never fails. Dr. W. D. Rice.

Last week the Baptist Courier printed the following pen sketch of Rev. W. D. Rice, who was re-elected president of the State Baptist Convention. It will be read with great interest by our readers, by whom Dr. Rice is so greatly beloved.

OUR PRESIDENT.

Dr. W. D. Rice, the president of our Convention, was elected to his high office at Darlington last year, and the place he holds in the affection of the people would keep him in the office as long as he has a desire to occupy it. Dr. Rice, has passed into the seventies, but seems to enjoy a perpetual youth. He loves the company of the young, and has thoroughly caught the young man's spirit. He is progressive, wide-awake and on the look-out for any new thing that is wise and useful. While he has a noble past behind him, he has a conviction that he should live in the present and look to the future. This he does, and so we find him keeping step heartily with all the advance movements made among his brethren.

Dr. Rice was born in Barnwell county in the twenties, and is justly proud of his native hills and soil. In 1856 he married Miss Julia Graham, the eldest daughter of that noble pioneer, Rev. Noah Graham, of Sumter. He has had a happy home, eight children having been born to him, four of whom have passed away. He received his college training at Columbian University, and shortly after returning to this State assumed pastoral charge of the Sumter church. This was his first work. From Sumter he removed to Society Hill, and presided over the saints of the Welsh Neck church. His next pastorate was in Newberry county at Bush River and New Zion churches. After a sojourn of two or three years among the red hills, he returned to his old home-land, and now for many years has been pastor of churches in Barnwell county, residing near Denmark. Among the churches of the Barwell Association, he is looked upon as the honored pastor, and his word is heavy and influential. He is remarkable for being in his place when duty is before him. To miss an appointment is the source of genuine sorrow, and the loved ones to whom he ministers feel uneasy if he is not in his pulpit when Sunday comes. In scores of homes, where he is known, he has the heartiest welcome, for, besides being an acceptable preacher, he is a genial and pleasing companion. He lightens the home to which he goes, and throws no shadow. Small and large love to gather about him, and in every way he has commanded himself to the people as a true servant and minister of Jesus Christ.

As a presiding officer he has won the confidence and esteem of his brethren. He is courteous and urbane, and if he has any fault, it lies on the side of kindness and forbearance. He has a large and manly form, a voice easily understood, and a manner at once dignified and free, without the shadow of stiffness or harshness.

For many years he was the running-mate of the sainted John G. Williams, with whom he labored in perfect harmony. The two men seemed to have an affinity for each other, and Dr. Rice caught the spirit of his friend, and so the dead still lives in the survivor. He loves a joke, and seems to possess an unceasing flow of spirit.

Probably the one distinguishing feature of our president is his abounding common-sense, a commodity said to be quite uncommon among some orders of men! Along with this he has a profound knowledge of men, and this serves him a good turn on many occasions. Few men have preached as long as he has and made as few ministerial blunders. If he has erred at all it has always been on the side of mercy and love.

There are not many men in whose hands the affairs of our Convention could be put with the assurance that they would be more wisely managed than in his.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me. My foot was swollen and paining me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by all druggists and medicine dealers."

The only way the farmer can offset the action of the fertilizer trust in raising the price of fertilizers is to make a small crop of cotton next year. Then they can control the price of the staple, and get trust prices for it. A big crop of cotton next year means more hard times for the farmers of the South.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Some time ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25 cent size he was cured. I gave this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—THOMAS C. BOWEN, Gloucester, O. In Memoriam. A little over a year ago my beloved wife departed this life for a better world, and feeling that her many friends miss her still, I indite these few words in loving remembrance. Let us not forget her. Her noble life and beautiful Christian character deserve and I am sure have a place in the hearts of all who knew her intimately. T. C. TANT.

Fires This Week.

Last Monday morning Mr. J. W. Hill, who was passing the residence of Treasurer Dickinson, noticed smoke issuing from the roof. Upon investigation the fire was found to be up-stairs between the roof and ceiling, caused no doubt by rats. The flames were quickly extinguished but the furniture in the parlor below was damaged by water to some extent, which is fully covered by insurance.

The same day fire was discovered in the roof of the boiler room at the factory, but it was extinguished before any damage of consequence was done, as the factory is so well equipped for fighting the fire field.

Mr. J. W. C. Reed, who occupies the dwelling out on the Cannon's bridge road, formerly occupied by Mr. G. A. Jennings and still owned by him, was not so fortunate. The building was seen to be on fire last Tuesday morning, in that portion of the house used as the kitchen. It no doubt originated from a defective flue. A considerable portion of the roof was destroyed, but the loss is fully covered by insurance.

"But 'tis an ill wind that blows nobody good" was probably the first thought of the school children yesterday afternoon when the fire bell gave the alarm and the graded school building was found to be on fire. They saw a good many happy holidays ahead, but alas for their hopes. The fire was put out without much trouble, and the scholars will find their teachers awaiting them at the usual time. This fire was also in the roof near the stove flue, and no doubt was caused from the same being defective. The fire was discovered shortly after school had been dismissed for the day.

Mrs. R. Churchill, Berlin, Vt., says, "Our baby was covered with running sores, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her. A specific for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. Bamberg Pharmacy."

A Small Pox Remedy.

A correspondent of the Stockton, California, Herald writes as follows:

"I herewith append a recipe which has been used to my knowledge in hundreds of cases. It will prevent or cure small pox though the pits or are filling. It is as unfailing as fate and conquers in every instance. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever. Here is the recipe as I have used it, and cured patients that learned physicians said must die. Sulphate of zinc, one grain; half a teaspoonful sugar; mix with two table-spoonfuls of water. When thoroughly mixed, add four ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in less than twelve hours. For a child, small doses, according to age. If counties would compel their physicians to use this, there would be no need of pest houses. If you value advice and experience, use this for the terrible disease."

Catarah Cannot be Cured.

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarah is a constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's catarah cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's catarah cure is not the work of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarah. Send for testimonials free.

A Cure For Small Pox.

Mr. D. Reeves, who has been with Eccles & Bryan since '71, hands the Charlotte Observer a clipping which he culled from a newspaper twelve years ago. He believes in the recipe, and as small pox talk is in the country now, 'The Observer' reproduces it for what it is worth:

A correspondent of the Liverpool Mercury writes to that journal as follows: "I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man if the worst case of small pox cannot be effectually cured in three days simply by cream of tartar. This is the sure and never failing remedy: One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of boiling water, to be drunk when cold at short intervals. It can be taken any time, and is a preventative as well as a curative. It is known to have cured in a hundred thousand cases without a failure. I myself have restored hundreds by this means. It never leaves a mark, never causes blindness, and always prevents tedious lingering. If the preventer only try it, and report the cures to you, you would require to employ many columns if you gave them publication." In sending the foregoing to the Chicago Tribune, a correspondent remarks that it is "a well known treatment of Dr. Chas. Rose, of Dorking, England."

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by all druggists and medicine dealers.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat. Artificially digests the food and aids Nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. It is the latest discovered digestant and tonic.
